

Sandbox, Penalty Box, Tool Box:

Conflict Resolution in the Early Years

Parents and caregivers need insight into the feelings and emotions that conflict evokes in our young children.

In this presentation learn about:

- ◆ Emotions and Conflict - The "Self" in Conflict
- ◆ Foster Emotionally Intelligent Environments in Family & Childcare Settings
- ◆ Strategies to Equip Young Children With Tools for Self-Regulation of Their Emotions, Behaviour and Social Interactions
- ◆ Practices That Invite Inclusion and Community After Disharmony and Conflict

Saturday, May 28, 9 am - 2:30 pm

Kent Elementary School

Doors open at 8 am for child-minding (3 years and older)

Please register at: Agassiz Library or Agassiz-Harrison Community Services

Lunch & refreshments provided for the adults;
please provide a lunch for your little one.

We are eco-friendly - please bring your own dishes and wipes.

THIS WORKSHOP IS CO-SPONSORED WITH THE AGASSIZ-HARRISON EARLY YEARS COMMITTEE

Sponsored by Agassiz-Harrison Early Years and Child Care Resource and Referral

$5 fee – Includes session, take-home materials and lunch

Workshop facilitator Sue Ogroske has many years of experience training people in resolving conflicts. She has worked in health care, Community Living and policing environments and has many successes guiding individuals and groups towards harmony in the home and at work. Sue has tailor made this workshop for parents, caregivers and teachers.